Dear Mr. Healy:

I was heartened to read of your valiant efforts to raise funds for those in need on Chicago's South Side. I applaud and commend you for your tireless fundraising.

You have been called "The King of Kindness" and an angel for your selfless acts. Please know that your demonstration of charity and the lives you touch cannot be measured in mere dollars. Clearly, the impact of your charitable work has saved lives and comforted many in their hours of desperation.

I wish you continued success with your fundraising and send my warmest regards to all who support you.

Sincerely,

Jesse L. Jackson, Jr.
Member of Congress
